

Position Announcement for Chief of Police Search – City of Homestead, Florida

A national search is underway to hire a qualified professional to lead the City of Homestead Police Department in Florida as its Chief of Police. The ideal candidate for this position is an experienced, transformational leader who has earned a reputation for being a high-integrity police executive.

The new chief will be expected to lead by example, build and sustain productive partnerships with stakeholders, including residents, city officials and neighboring law enforcement agencies. The chief must be experienced in planning, budgeting and policy creation and must possess the will and courage to make difficult but fair decisions that benefit the city, its residents, and the department. A visionary, experienced leader who adheres to the strictest principles of accountability is the ideal candidate for this position.

The chief will report directly to the City Manager who recognizes public safety as a top priority for the City of Homestead. Thus, the new chief can expect the full support of the Manager, the city's elected body and that of a friendly, pro-law enforcement community.
